

ROBBERS LOOT MARYLAND BANK

Shoot Down Director And Escape With $5,000

ASSAULT OFFICIALS

Bandits Flee in Automobile and Trail Believed to Lead Toward Pennsylvania.

Sandy Spring, Md., April 27.—A band of robbers entered the First National Bank here at 3.15 o'clock yesterday afternoon, shot and killed Francis M. Hallowell, 53 years old, one of the directors, and locking the aged president and four employees of the institution in a vault, made their escape with $5,000 in currency.

In addition to killing Mr. Hallowell, Asa M. Stabler, 80 years old, president of the bank, was beaten over the head with the butt of a revolver by one of the bandits. A deep gash extending from the crown of his head toward the neck was inflicted.

Alvin G. Thomas, 77 years old, the treasurer; Fred C. Thomas, cashier and secretary; and Francis Miller, the assistant cashier, were likewise beaten over the head.

The money stolen comprised the cash on hand of two institutions which occupied the same quarters, the First National Bank and Savings Institution, of Sandy Spring. About $2,000 was taken from the National bank and about $3,000 from the savings bank.
Liberty bonds in the vaults of the institutions were untouched.

Reports of the robbery quickly spread throughout the county districts and caused great excitement. The crime is the latest of a series of robberies of which county banking institutions have been victims. County residents in large numbers have deposited their Liberty bonds with the banks for safe keeping and the thefts are giving them much concern.

Employees of the First National were bent over their books, closing up the day's business, and did not observe the men enter.

They first became aware of the robbers' presence when, at a sharp command of "hands up," they found themselves looking into four revolvers held by two of the bandits, behind whom stood three others.

Mr. Hallowell, who had come to the bank to confer with the president, attempted to rise. He was shot and killed instantly.

With their hands up and covered by the four pistols, Mr. Stabler, Mr. A.
G. Thomas, F. L. Thomas, Mr. Miller, assistant cashier, and Miss Sallie P.
Brooks, a clerk, were marched to a rear room and tied hand and foot by the other three robbers.

The bandits then rifled the vaults, following which they unbound the officials and employees, pushed them into the larger vault, locked the door and hurried away.

The five prisoners were confined in the vault for half an hour.

By chance, another director, Charles F. Kirk, happened to enter the bank and finding no one there, began an investigation. Near the big vault he heard the faint cries of those locked inside.

In their haste, the bandits had neglected to close the inner door of the vault, and those inside managed to make themselves heard outside distinctly enough to call the combination to Mr. Kirk. The latter summoned help, and, working the combination, succeeded in releasing the captives.

The police of Washington and Baltimore and in every county of the State were notified at once.

The keeper of a garage at Highland, Howard county, reported that a touring car corresponding to the description given had been driven up to his garage by several men who purchased gasoline. Half an hour later came a report from Dayton, Howard county, that occupants of what is believed to have been the same car ascended to be directed to the Frederick Place.

The Washington police reported that early in the afternoon a big Had-son car had been seen on one of the District roads by a traffic policeman.
As the car was exceeding the speed limit, the officer gave chase on his

CANADIAN MENNONITES

Officials Visit Washington to Get Assurance They Will Not Have to Bear Arms in War

Washington, April 27.—Church officials from Mennonite communities in Saskatchewan and Manitoba today sought information from the Government as to how it would view a proposed immigration on a large scale to Eastern Mississippi.

The Department of Justice was asked if the Mennonites would be free to adhere to the tenets of their religion, which forbid them to carry arms in war. Officials assured the churchmen they could follow the dictates of their conscience.

The Mennonites told officials the immigrant immigration would bring 25,000 men, women and children, and that eventually they hoped to establish communities numbering 100,000 souls on lands they have located in Eastern Mississippi, near the Alabama line.
They are farmers and are said to be of pure Dutch stock.

America has many times been a haven for the Mennonites, fleeing persecution from Governments in Germany, Austria, Holland and Russia and seeking the privilege of worshiping as they wished. The first came in the time of William Penn, and others have been coming ever since. They are established in Pennsylvania, Ohio, Kansas and other States and in Brazil.

PROSPEROUS DAY IN POLICE COURT

Receipts Over Two Hundred Dollars at Yesterday's Two Sessions

THREE CASES TODAY

Fish Dealers and Others Must Let Black Bass Alone Until After June 15th.

Two sessions of the Police Court were held yesterday—the first at nine o'clock in the morning and the second at seven in the evening. The latter lasted over two hours. Over $100 was collected in the morning and about the same amount in the evening.

A number of arrests had been made last Saturday and Sunday, but most of the offenders left collateral for their appearance yesterday morning. Most of this class, however, failed to respond when their names were called and forfeited their deposits.

At the night session several cases (misdemeanors) were disposed of.
The last case examined lasted some time. Several white men and two negresses had been arrested under suspicious circumstances. After a long and tedious examination of defendants and witnesses, the accused were turned over to the health department, according to the present laws. They will be under arrest until final reports on their cases shall have been submitted to the court.

Three cases were before the court today. A man was charged with disorderly conduct in a King street store, also with threatening an attaché. The accused was fined $5 and made to give assurance that he will in future observe all laws of the state and city.

Two fish dealers were also before the court. They were charged with having in their possession black bass, which, under the law, cannot be handled from March 15 to June 15. The accused plead ignorance of such a law and were dismissed with an admonition. They assured the court they would have nothing to do with these specimens of the finny tribe during this time in future.

The law provides a fine of $20 for violation of this law, and the police will in future report all persons who may be guilty of its infraction.

COUNTY LIST NAMED

Front Royal, Va., April 27.—The Warren county Democratic convention met Saturday and elected the following delegates to the State convention at Roanoke, May 18: Front trict, John W. Merzian; South River district, William Robinson; Cedarville district, A. J. Bowen; and Arthur L.

Warthen and Aubrey G. Weaver delegates-at-large.

The Congressional fight between Col. Robert F. Leedy, of Luray and Judge T. W. Harrison, of Winchester, is creating considerable interest. The friends of Colonel Leedy are very hopeful and he is being received warmly all over the district. With the organization is supposed to be supporting Judge Harrison, his friends admit that there is dissatisfaction in the ranks owing to the forceful attacks that Colonel Leedy is making on the Volstead act and Judge Harrison's vote to pass it over President Wilson's veto.

TO TAKE SCHOOL CENSUS

The school census for the city of Alexandria is taken every five years.
Since the appropriations for the schools by the State are based on this census it is necessary that an accurate account be rendered. Mr. Hayden and Mr. Ray have been appointed enumerators by Superintendent W. H.
Sweeney, and will complete this work in a few weeks.

Prepare for Meet

A. H. S. Will Participate in Various Events in May

A great deal of interest is being taken in the three track meets during the month of May, at which the Alexandria High School will be represented by a crack squad.

The first meet, Saturday, May the first, will be held at Manassas with the Manassas Agricultural High School. This meet is expected to bring forth new stars of the cinder path and to show the people of Alexandria just what they have in the way of athletes.

The next meet, at which A. H. S. will be represented, will be the South Atlantic States Interscholastic track meet, to be held in the Stadium of Central High School of Washington on May 8. At this meet, schools from various states and the District of Columbia will be represented, and it is here that the local men will meet the test, for some of the best athletes in the country will participate.

The last meet will be the Eighth Congressional District track meet, to be held at Leesburg, Va., May 15. The trophy, a silver loving cup, which we have held for the last two seasons, must be won this year to be ours permanently.

Men trying out as dashers are V.
Hicks, C. Hicks, Midkiff, Sothard, Dreifus and Bayless, an aggregation from which they expect the most encouraging results as the time made by them over a rough field is very close to the standards of the cinder track.
For honors in the distance events, West, Midkiff, Myers, Nowland, Moore and Cockey are all running a closely contested race and it is hard to prophesy who will place in the meets.

Pohl, Pettitt, West, Allen and Oliver are all showing up well at the weight events. Although Pettitt is doing particularly well, the others are not lagging in the least and we shall probably carry two or three places.

At present, Midkiff, Dreifus, Sothard, V. Hicks and West are making good distance in the broad jump and great deeds are expected of them.

A loving cup has been offered by the senior class to the man scoring the highest number of points during the season. An interclass track meet will be held on the high school grounds on the afternoon of May, the twelfth and it is expected that a cup will be awarded the winning class. It is sincerely hoped that the people of Alexandria shall attend all of these meets and support the team with an unflin-ing spirit.

Use Your Credit Right!

It's Proper Use Will Mean It's Continuance While If Used Improperly It Will Be Withdrawn

Merchants, Business Men and Professional Men, all extend credit with the understanding definitely stated or implied—that the obligation incurred will be met promptly.

Every time that credit is extended and payment made in a reasonable time the better will be your standing and the more readily will merchants extend your credit when it is desired.

Neglecting to pay your bills undermines your credit. If it is persisted in, soon you will have little or no credit standing among the merchants.

In this city, like in all other progressive cities, is a live credit association. It is made up of men who are identified with the business interests of the city. The object of the association is to protect its members from those who have no regards for their obligations and whose only concern is the ability to get "trusted" for goods that they desire.

You may consider that if you run a bill at one store and let it go unpaid that it will not be known to the other merchants. This is not so. When a person contracts a bill at a store and does not pay same, this fact is made known to the secretary of the association. In this city in the office of the secretary are thousands of cards. Each one a story of the financial transactions of an individual. Among these cards will be found the names of practically every person who trades in Alexandria and who asks for credit. Not only is a record kept of those who do not pay their bills, but it is kept of those who do pay their bills promptly.

When you are about to let an obligation go unpaid, just consider that not only will the merchant whom you defraud be cognizant of the fact but that every member of the credit association can have the same information if desired, by simply making an inquiry of the secretary.

Keep these facts in mind and they will help to prevent you from incurring obligations that will be an embarrassment for you to meet at the time they become due.

Be Honest With Your Creditors

Pay your bills when due. Should sickness, death or some unforeseen happening prevent the payment of your bills when due. Don't change your place to trade. Don't go around the corner to avoid passing the places of business of those whom you owe. Don't do any of these things.

Tell those you owe. Tell the circumstances that have arisen and that prevent you meeting your obligations. You will find each one only too glad to give you an extension of time and will think none the less of you.

Your credit, if it is good, is one of the most valuable of all your assets and you can only keep it good as you deal right with those who have confidence in you.

Don't Incur Bills You Cannot Pay

You may consider that the world owes you a living but this does not give you a right to collect it from a few merchants in the way of securing goods and failing to pay for same.

No one knows better than yourself your ability to pay. When you ask a merchant for credit, he assumes that you know that this obligation can be met at the proper time.

He does not mean this his kindness in the extension of the asked for credit shall be a burden for you to meet. If this proves to be the case. Do not blame the merchant. You can only hold yourself responsible. The fact that your indebtedness is so large is due to your readiness to take advantage of your opportunities without giving due consideration to your financial resources.

If this is your case. Make the best of it. Resolve to economize. Make some payment large or small upon your indebtedness each pay day and soon it will be wiped out.

Don't consider this a matter of no importance and go on adding to your indebtedness from day to day until the crash comes, but start today resurrecting your credit standing in the eyes of men.

Thinking of Your Bills Will Not Pay Them

If you are encumbered with a load of bills far beyond your ability to pay, don't be satisfied with merely regretting the fact. Take steps to reduce them, at least gradually.

While you are doing so, do not continue creating obligations. Do not pay a bill to one merchant and make a larger one at another store. The best way to dig out of debt is to pay cash for all you buy and keep your expenditures under your income. Above all else, while you are doing this, don't go to another merchant and pay him cash while the one that gave you credit waits. Deal with those you owe even if they require the cash. It is due them and you will both feel better about your indebtedness.

STRAWBERRY PROSPECT Georgetown, Del., April 27.—Never in the history of the strawberry industry in lower Delaware were prospects better for a bumper crop of fruit than at this time. The blossoms are well advanced for this season of the year, and all patches seem to have plenty of foliage, runners and buds. Fruit growers believe that cold weather is a thing of the past, and everything is being got in readiness for the approach of the berry season, which will be on with in the next four weeks, unless cold rains and an unusual amount of cloudy weather prevail and prevent the fruit from developing.

The acreage in lower Delaware this season is greater than last season, due to the fact that growers found berries to be one of the most profitable crops grown last year. Prices remained high throughout the season and several growers from a few acres realized enough to purchase small farms. One grower in Northwest Fork district sold his field of about seven acres for more than $8,000, while another farmer in Dagsboro district got about $7,000 from five acres. Possibly half of the berries grown in Sussex county go into syrup and jams, millions of pounds of sugar being used to preserve them before they are shipped to the extensive syrup manufacturers in Rochester, N. Y., and St. Louis.

MUST LIVE UP TO TREATY

Council Refuses to Discuss Modification of German Army Requirements

Paris, April 27.—The council of premiers this afternoon dispatched a note to Berlin demanding immediate execution of the treaty of Versailles, especially those clauses regarding disarmament, indemnities and coal deliveries, threatening to extend occupation of German territory if the demands were refused, according to an announcement at the French foreign office.

The council refused to discuss any modification of Germany's army requirements until the principal requirements of the treaty of Versailles were fulfilled.

Then, the statement continued, the allies will confer with German representatives regarding Germany's national situation. The note enumerated Germany's alleged evasion of the peace treaty and concluded with the declaration that the entente is just as determined for execution of the treaty of Versailles as it was in prosecution of the war.

The council of premiers has fixed May 25 as date for the conference with German representatives at Spa, a news agency dispatch from San Remo said today. The Germans will be called in as soon as the allied leaders have agreed on a program.

The council of premiers has postponed settlement of the Adriatic controversy following a request from Anton Trumbitch, the Jugo-Slav representative.

Arctic Explorer to Sail From Nome For Seattle, Navy Department Learns

Washington, April 27.—Radio messages received yesterday by the Navy Department from its station at Cordova, Alaska, indicate that Roald Amundsen, the Arctic explorer, intends to abandon his effort to reach the North Pole.

The messages said it was understood that Amundsen, who arrived last week at Anadyr, Siberia, intended to take the steamer Victoria at Nome for Seattle. It was stated that the time of his departure would depend on the time of his getting clear of ice in Siberia.

The radiograms from Cordova were in response to a message from the Navy Department asking if that station was in touch either with the Russian wireless station at Anadyr or with Amundsen's ship, which was caught in the ice in Siberia near Anadyr.

News of Gonzales' Flight to Carranza Accepted as Revolutionary War

Washington, April 27.—Confirmation of reports that Gen. Gonzales had refused to go over to the Sonora revolutionists was obtained from official American sources here yesterday. Gonzales not only pledged his support to President Carranza, but offered in an emergency to take the field against the rebels, it was said.

Military circles here regard this action of Gonzales as the turning point in the Mexican revolution. Feeling that a country-wide upset is impossible without Gonzales' assistance, they predict that the tide of victory will now gradually flow toward Carranza.

At the same time, Gen. Villa, who allegedly has adhered to the Sonora movement, is admitted to be a factor in the situation. However, his well-known hostility to Gen. Obregon makes him an unreliable addition to the rebel camp.

FARMERS GIVE WARNING

Reduced Planting Due to Labor Shortage Threatens Famine

Berlin, N. J., April 27.—Insufficiency in farm labor and roads conditions occupied much of the time of scores of farmers at the meeting of the Pomona Grange here yesterday. Harry Huff was named to go to Trenton and confer with the Road Commission, in an effort to have the commission build country roads that eight and ten produce auto trucks will not destroy. The farmers want special roads built for their heavy trucks and hauling.

A summing up of the farm labor situation revealed that only twenty-five per cent of the farmers have any help at all in the county, and that fifty per cent have no help. A speaker said that if the government does not do something soon that will relieve this situation, country-wide hunger will result, as the production will be cut down half or even more than that in this country and this county is in the same difficulty as other parts of the country.

is believed to be that of Carrie T. Selva, who disappeared in Indianapolis 20 years ago.

The building is being converted into a garage. The skeleton, which was clothed in an old blue dress was found in a sitting posture in a corner of the attic by workmen who were preparing to place a steel beam in the building. The bones and a pair of old slippers, found beside the skeleton, were identified by relatives of the missing woman as being similar to those which she wore when she disappeared.

Miss Selva had suffered a nervous breakdown and was a patient at the hospital when she disappeared. The coroner found no evidence of violence after making an examination. A country-wide search followed Miss Selva's disappearance.

Coroner Robinson said it practically was impossible to determine whether Miss Selva was carried to the attic by some one or whether she had taken the place of her own account and starved herself to death. Her skull had fallen to the floor and the bones of the upper part of the skeleton were leaning against the wall.

Miss Selva disappeared from the hospital on March 11, 1900.
